Welcome to the Austria eXtreme Triathlon 2024

Change Your Life!

June 22, 2024, at the first light of dawn in the river shore meadows south of Graz: For the 9th time, athletes from all over the world are waiting for the starting signal for the Austria eXtreme Triathlon. With the traditional starting bell in the hands of Mayor Erich Gosch, they are sent on their way to one of the world's most beautiful but also toughest long-distance triathlon routes. Across Styria, over 230 km and almost 6,000 meters in altitude.

The athletes are, of course, you. And this Stroßnbuach is your companion, with detailed information and maps for all sections of the route, including transition zones, danger areas, drinking water points and parking areas. It also gives you an overview of the entire course of action of the Austria eXtreme Triathlon, from the briefing on Friday to the closing ceremony on Sunday. Please read all information carefully!

A lot of things about this race remain the same as they have been over the last few years, but some things are evolving and changing. This applies, for example, to the swimming route, which has to be adjusted due to a construction site. And we have a great new location for the closing ceremony, the Haus für Alle in Öblarn.

The Austria eXtreme Triathlon promises an unforgettable day where community and the simplicity, camaraderie and fairness of raw triathlon are the focus. This is evident both in the quiet atmosphere away from the noise of major events and in details, such as the ban on walking sticks when running.

We expect all starters and all supporters to interact respectfully and fairly, to treat nature with care and, of course, to provide mutual assistance in an emergency. As the route covers several mountain passes and trails, it is important to remain flexible and pay attention to short-term information in case adjustments are necessary along the route.

The organizational team wishes all athletes a sporty, exciting, unforgettable, emotional, friendly and, above all, accident-free Austria eXtreme Triathlon.

It's great that you're writing a piece of Austria eXtreme Triathlon history with us!

We look forward to seeing you at the Austria eXtreme Triathlon 2024!

(President, Maria Schwarz)

04:30 a.m. : Start of the 9th Austria eXtreme Triathlon 2024

Either we start from land or water will be decided on the day of the race (depends on the water current!).

Swimming distance (3,8 km)

The swimming part takes place in the river Mur, the main river of Styria, which flows through Austria, Slovenia, Croatia and Hungary and represents at some parts also the border between these four countries.

The water quality is quality grade two.

Cut-off-time for the swimming: 07:00 a.m.

We swim out of the Altarm and continue our course upstream until we reach the buoy. There, we cross the river and swim along the right bank with the current until we're almost at the dam. Then, we return upstream until we reach the old arm where the transition zone is located. The right shoulder always points to the shore.

After ca. 3,8 kilometres you leave the water at the Altarm-Thondorf.

The temperature of the water (between 12° and 17° Celsius) will be announced at the briefing. The river Mur can have different colours: greenish, clear to brownish, earthy and sandy after heavy rainfall.

Individuals and teams start at the same time!

Expected time of arrival of the first athlete around 05:10 a.m.

Biking distance (186,6 km, about 3.900 altitude difference)

When it comes to over coming of altitude difference, the biking distance is the most difficult part of the Triathlon.

Take care, you have to pace your self and choose a suitable speed.

Gaberl

When having reached the „Gaberl“, a former Roman road, you can see the Dachstein for the first time. Now it goes down steeply.

Lachtal

When having reached the „Kammersberg“, you get rewarded by the beautiful view of the scenery.

The „Burg Rothenfels“ in the „Wölzertal“ is one among the few medieval castles which kept its former look.

Sölkpass

The „Sölkpass“ with its slopes between 8 to 12% rises in front of you now. It connects the valley of the river Enns in the North with the upper part of the river Mur in the South and thereby crosses the „Schladminger Tauern“.

When having reached the „Sölkpass“ you are 1790 metres above the sea level. For all the efforts you have taken you will get rewarded with a beautiful descent to the valley. „Warning, dangerous descent!“

Checkpoint

At each Check Point you are obligated to get into contact with a member of the crew!

Dachstein

The Dachstein, the first glacier of the Alps from an eastward direction, is one of the five most visited destinations in Styria. Just approaching with the Dachstein-cable-car is already an adventure on its own. Without any pillars you overcome 1.000 meters difference in altitude just within 6 minutes, while passing steeply dropping cliffs and rocks. And as soon as you reach the Dachstein-glacier you will face a terrific high-mountains-landscape offering probably the widest choice of activities in the whole alp-area.

Lodenwalker

Even though the buildings and machines have been adapted for the present day, the spirit of the business has remained the same. At 1,000 metres above sea level things have their own pace. We still, not only value but rely upon the cooperation with our local community. There are business and family connections which stretch back for generations. Many of our craftsmen and women have been working with us from the same families for just as long.

The old folk used to say "wool needs time". That is exactly how we work. There are no short cuts to quality. Many visitors have found their way to this quiet corner of the world and discovered a place where they can take their time in choosing fine country clothes that they are proud to wear at any time, any place, anywhere in the world. To them and to the many people who we hope will come to see us for the first time we wish,

"G'sundtragen!" (it means: "feel well in our clothes!")
